THE JOB

Clark County Public Health is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Public Health Nurse II. The Public Health Nurse II works in a population-based practice setting, emphasizing health promotion and prevention of health problems. Activities may be focused on the individual, the community, or the systems level, depending on how the issue may best be addressed. This position's duties involve participating in the identification, screening, education and treatment of persons with latent tuberculosis infection (LTBI) and active tuberculosis disease, including provision of ongoing LTBI treatment and follow-up, daily observed therapy (DOT) and case management for active disease; education of providers and clients about LTBI and active disease, and providing trainings to office staff on tuberculosis and skin tests (PPDs); participation in active surveillance and monitoring of communicable disease in Clark County, weekend on-call schedule, including refugee, immunizations, pregnancy testing, and HIV testing and counseling. Organizational responsibilities for all department employees include understanding and promoting the public health mission of the Department; providing courteous, respectful, efficient customer service to all Public Health clients; honoring diversity of all department employees and constituents; participating in Public Health training; striving for personal excellence in public health work.

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor's degree in nursing from an accredited college or university and two (2) years of increasingly responsible work experience that provides the knowledge, skills, and abilities required by the position. All combinations of education, experience, and training that demonstrate the ability to perform the work will be considered. Current Washington State RN license and valid driver's license is a requirement for the position. Finalists for the position must submit to a criminal background check, as required by RCW 43.43.830. The ideal candidate will have the following strengths:

Knowledge of: principles of public health nursing including professional nursing principles and concepts; normal and abnormal patterns of growth and development; symptoms, treatment and control of disease processes, human anatomy and physiology; medical record keeping and report writing.

Ability to: use nursing judgment and knowledge; deal courteously and tactfully with patients, co-workers, and the public; work effectively with multiple culturally diverse communities and populations; evaluate and assess health and program care needs; coordinate services and direct clients and families in self-help; write clear reports and maintain accurate records; in cases of emergency, respond to activation during working or non-working hours.

SALARY

The salary range is $21.36 - $25.96 per hour. It is the general policy of the County to start employees in the lower or middle sections of the salary range. Clark County provides a generous benefits package, which includes medical and dental insurance, paid holidays, vacation, sick leave and retirement. This position is represented and requires membership in Local 335 – LIUNA (Health Care Division, Laborers International Union, AFL-CIO).

SELECTION PROCESS

1. Application Review: (Pass/Fail) – All applicants must complete a Clark County application and submit it to the Human Resources department by 5:00 p.m. on the closing date. Incomplete applications will not pass the application review. Candidates deemed most qualified will be invited to participate in the remainder of the selection process.
2. Oral Interview: (Weighted 100%) - The interview will be job related and may include, but not be limited to, the qualifications outlined in the job announcement.
